Preface

Joseph Case High School

ALMA MATER

Tune—CORNELL ALMA MATER

Our strong bond can ne'er be broken
Formed in dear Case High
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's tie.

Mem'ry's leaflets close shall twine
Around our hearts for aye,
And waft us back o'er life's broad track
To pleasures of past day.

Words—CLASS OF 1947

High school life at best is passing
Gliding swiftly by;
Then let us pledge in word and deed
Our love for dear Case High.

CHORUS

Alma Mater—Alma Mater
Deep graven on each heart,
Ode victorious we go singing
As from these halls we depart.

Dedication

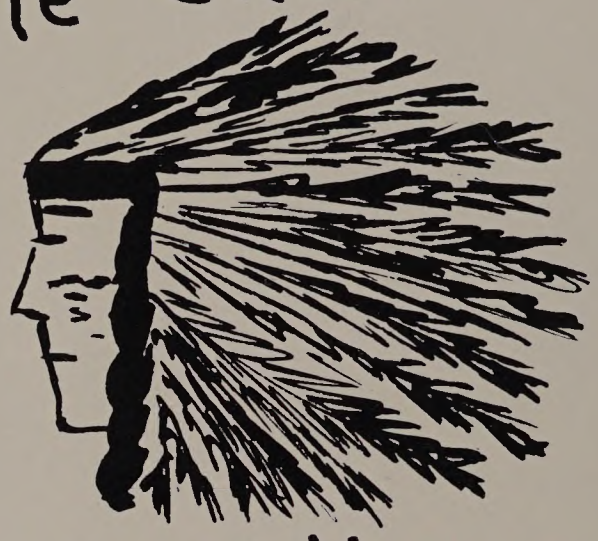

COACH JAMES F. CASSIDY

To Coach Cassidy:

Our years at Case have been enriched by your teaching us true sportsmanship. You have shown us that the importance is not whether we win or lose, but how well we play and how important our attitude is regarding the outcome. Throughout our lives, we will carry your message, to help us to be better individuals, and better citizens.

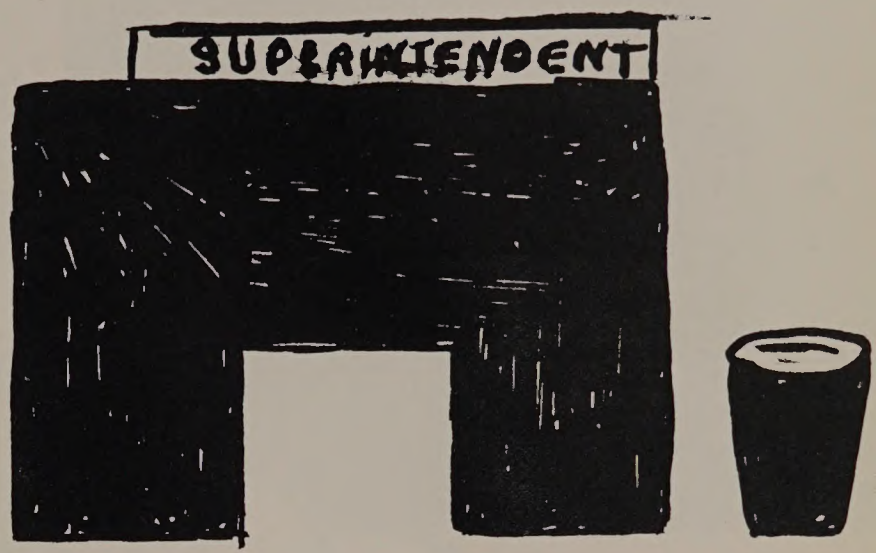

In recognition of your unceasing efforts in our behalf, we, the Class of 1960, dedicate our yearbook to you.

TOWN OF SWANSEA, MASSACHUSETTS
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS
RICHARD B. GREENMAN, SUPERINTENDENT

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT
JOSEPH CASE HIGH SCHOOL
OSBORNE 8-8326

To the Class of 1960:

A decade is but one-seventh of a lifetime, yet it is more than half of yours so far. This period may seem long, filled with portant changes, but in history it is short, often labeled with a catchword such as Gay Nineties or Roaring Twenties.

In the Gay Nineties sports flourished with the beginning of football and the popularity of rowing and bicycle clubs. Women shocked the college world in a new field, physical education and track athletics.

Farm horses gave way to the new gas tractor and the horseless carriage was a sight to behold. The early auto was little more than an old-fashioned buggy with engine in the rear.

Recreation was gay with picnics, trolly parties, roller coasters, shoot the chutes, dancing and eating at hotels. While the circus was becoming popular, excitement was found in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show and Rough Riders, a combination of cowboys, covered wagons, Indians and Teddy Roosevelt's men who fought the Spanish in Cuba.

Half a century later, in the fifties, came your school days. Years from now this decade may be known as the Fabulous Fifties, with its extremes of tragedy and world shaking advances in science.

It is hard to realize you have witnessed, since your second grade, the Korean Conflict, the attrition and suspense of cold war, long strikes, a recession and threat of inflation. Most likely, however, you will remember other things such as sputnik, vast strides in electronics, and the marvelous missiles. Like the horseless carriage, the pilotless plane or rocket opened a new world.

In this fabulous decade we advanced with data processors, electronic brains and automation. Polio was reduced by Salk vaccine. The practical efforts at world peace and the demand for better education for all pointed to a new age in the sixties.

Will the next ten years be the Golden Sixties, or perhaps the Soaring Sixties? You could make this decade golden in opportunity, service and income. Your fortune could soar with the achievement, however, will depend on personal desire and ability. A missile without enough fuel cannot leave its launching pad, and without a guidance system it will get nowhere. For you I wish a supply of power, a target, and a guidance system in good working order for your take-off from Case High School.

Sincerely yours,

Richard B. Greenman

HELEN A. REAGAN, PRINCIPAL

Dear Girls and Boys:

You are members of a class that marks a most important milestone in the history of Joseph Case High School. June, 1960, is the 30th anniversary of Case's first graduation. The proud heritage of honor and achievement provided by the generations of students who have gone before you is now yours to guard and cherish.

I feel that it is fitting at this time to review for you some of the circumstances that went into the establishment of your school.

The Joseph Case Memorial High School stands as the munificent gift of Elizabeth Richmond Stevens, Swansea's foremost patron of education. The building bears the name of her father, a member of the first class to graduate from a normal school in the state of Massachusetts. Throughout his long and useful life Joseph Case stood for public education of the highest type.

On September 1, 1927, the beautiful edifice was dedicated in a solemn ceremony to the cause of educating the youth of Swansea.

Those of us who have been privileged to work with the young men and women of the town have tried to preserve the school to the dedicated purpose of its establishment as directed by Mrs. Stevens herself.

It was her fondest wish that the school would always represent the wisest and the best in a free and progressive system of public education. She desired that not only would the mind be taught and trained but that the character of the individual would be so developed that the young people who studied within these walls might have trained minds and be of upright character.

Today we ask you to take the truths that you have been taught here and to assume your duties as worthy citizens in your town, your state, and your nation.

God's blessings on all of you.

Sincerely yours,

Helen A. Reagan

HELEN A. REAGAN, PRINCIPAL

Members of Class of 1960:

I offer you my sincerest congratulations, but I am sorry to see you leave. Your departure is but one change in a life which will witness remarkable changes. It is this theme of change that I would like to leave with you now.

This change is not the slow, creeping change of other times that took fifty years to perfect jet aircraft. Rather, it is the swift, surging change which brings the back of the moon in view in less than ten years and will probably put a man on the moon next year. What implications are inherent in this thought! And how well are you, the graduating class of 1960, prepared for this changing world? When you entered the first grade you lived in the Air Age; as you became junior high students you witnessed the coming and going of the Jet Age; today as seniors you are on the threshold of the Space Age, and tomorrow ---------?

This concept of "age" is becoming smaller and smaller and requires a greater adjustment on your part. Your adult life will be geared to a time of rapid, sometimes perplexing, change. It is your responsibility to hold fast to the ideas and ideals of our culture which have made our country great. The principles upon which this nation was founded, as well as the principles that lead to a full, rich life, are constant.

One cannot enjoy the legacy of our American heritage without shouldering the responsibility for its maintenance. Your task is doubly difficult since you must adapt to the changing conditions while carrying out your responsibilities.

Study all change carefully, test contemplated change against your background and evaluate for yourself any ideas of change that any individual or group might try to foist upon you. This critical evaluation of change will make you a better individual and a stronger citizen.

My best wishes go with you at this time as you reach this very important change in your life.

Daughters of American Revolution Award

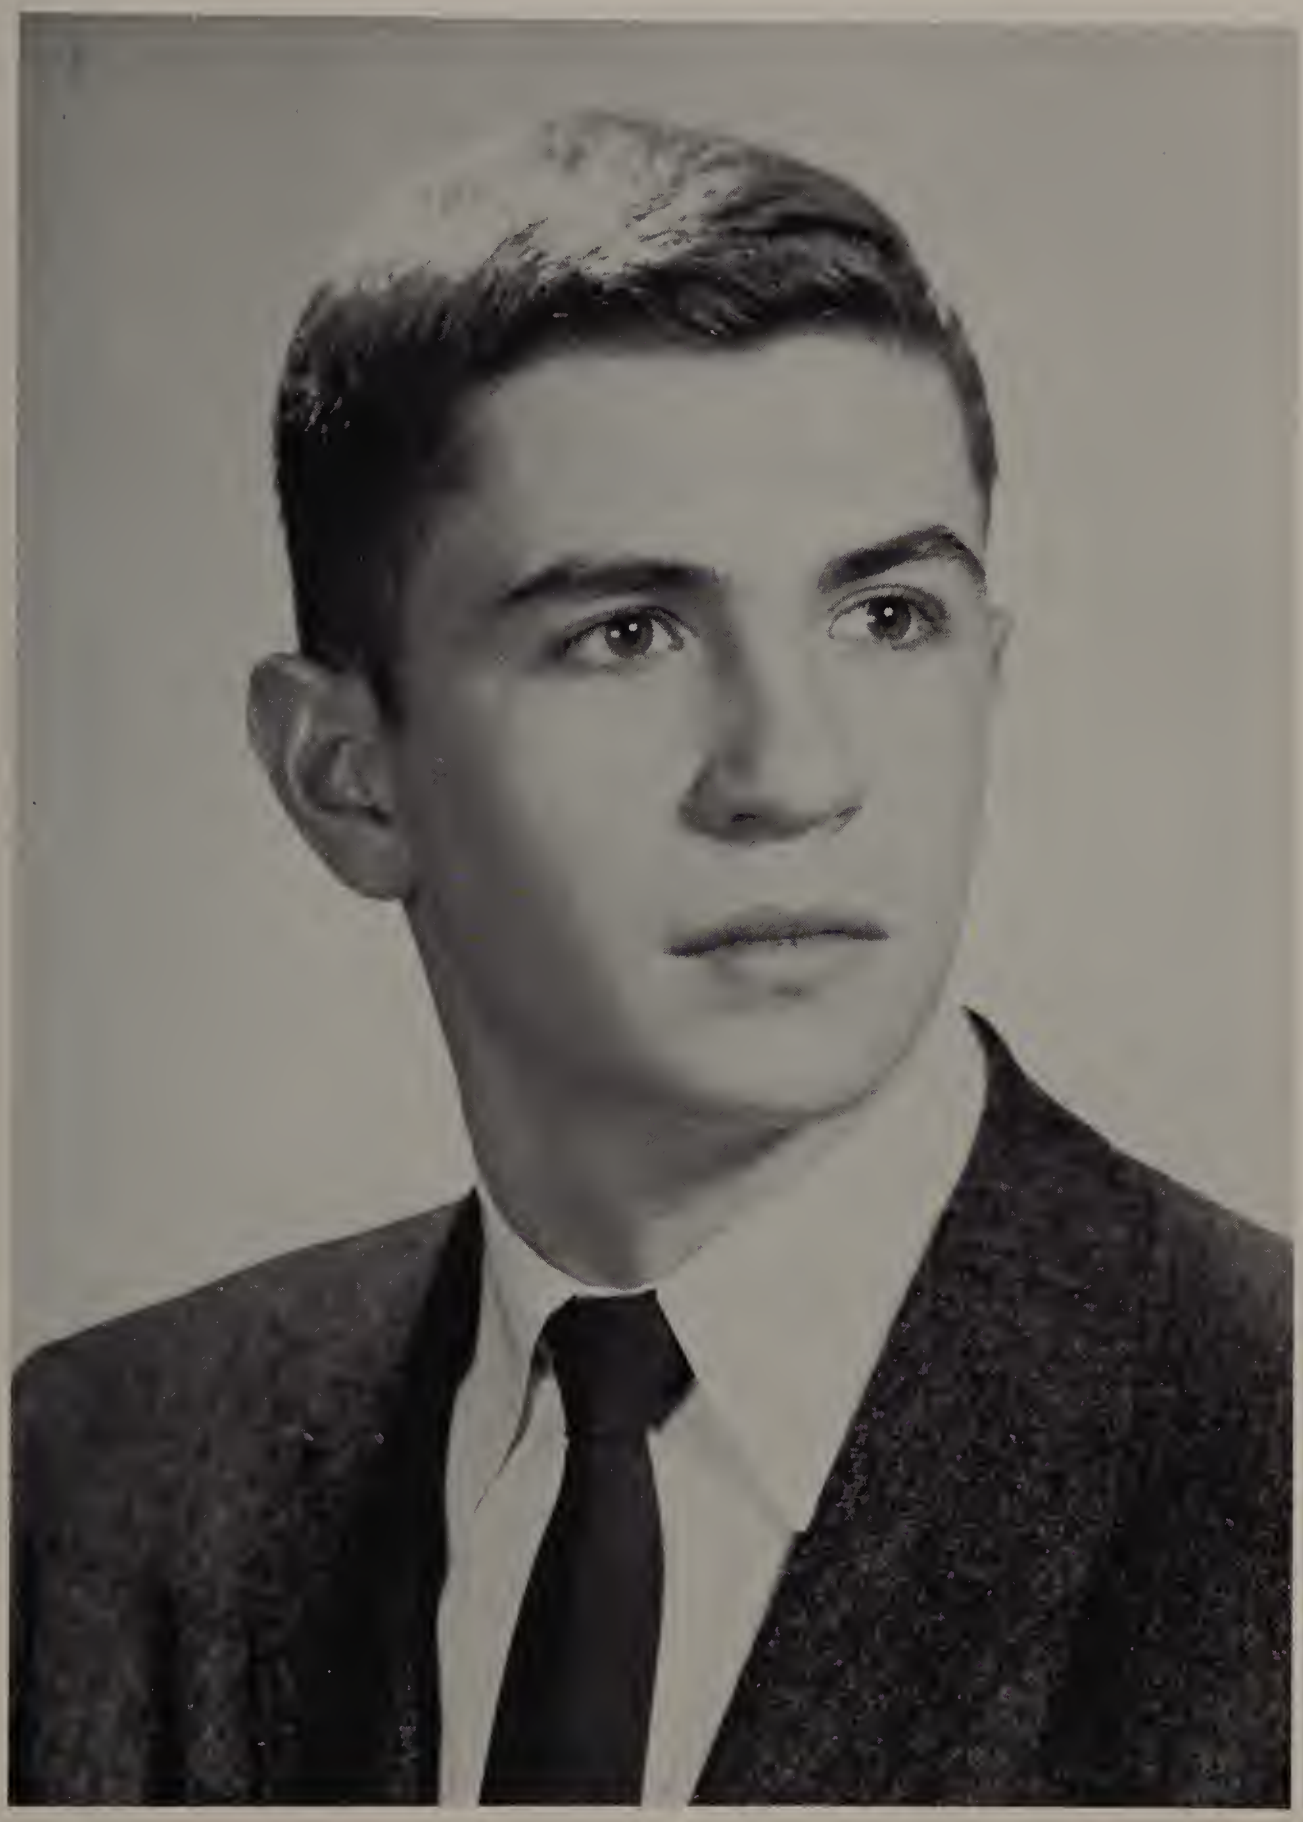

DOLORES COMEAU

This year Dolores Comeau was selected to receive the D.A.R. Award. This honor is bestowed each year upon the outstanding senior girl who possesses the qualities of leadership, service, patriotism, and dependability.

Del, an honor student, active in many extracurricular activities has rendered many services to the class of '60 and to Case High School.

Luck, success, and happiness, from the class of 1960 to you, Del, in all your future endeavors!

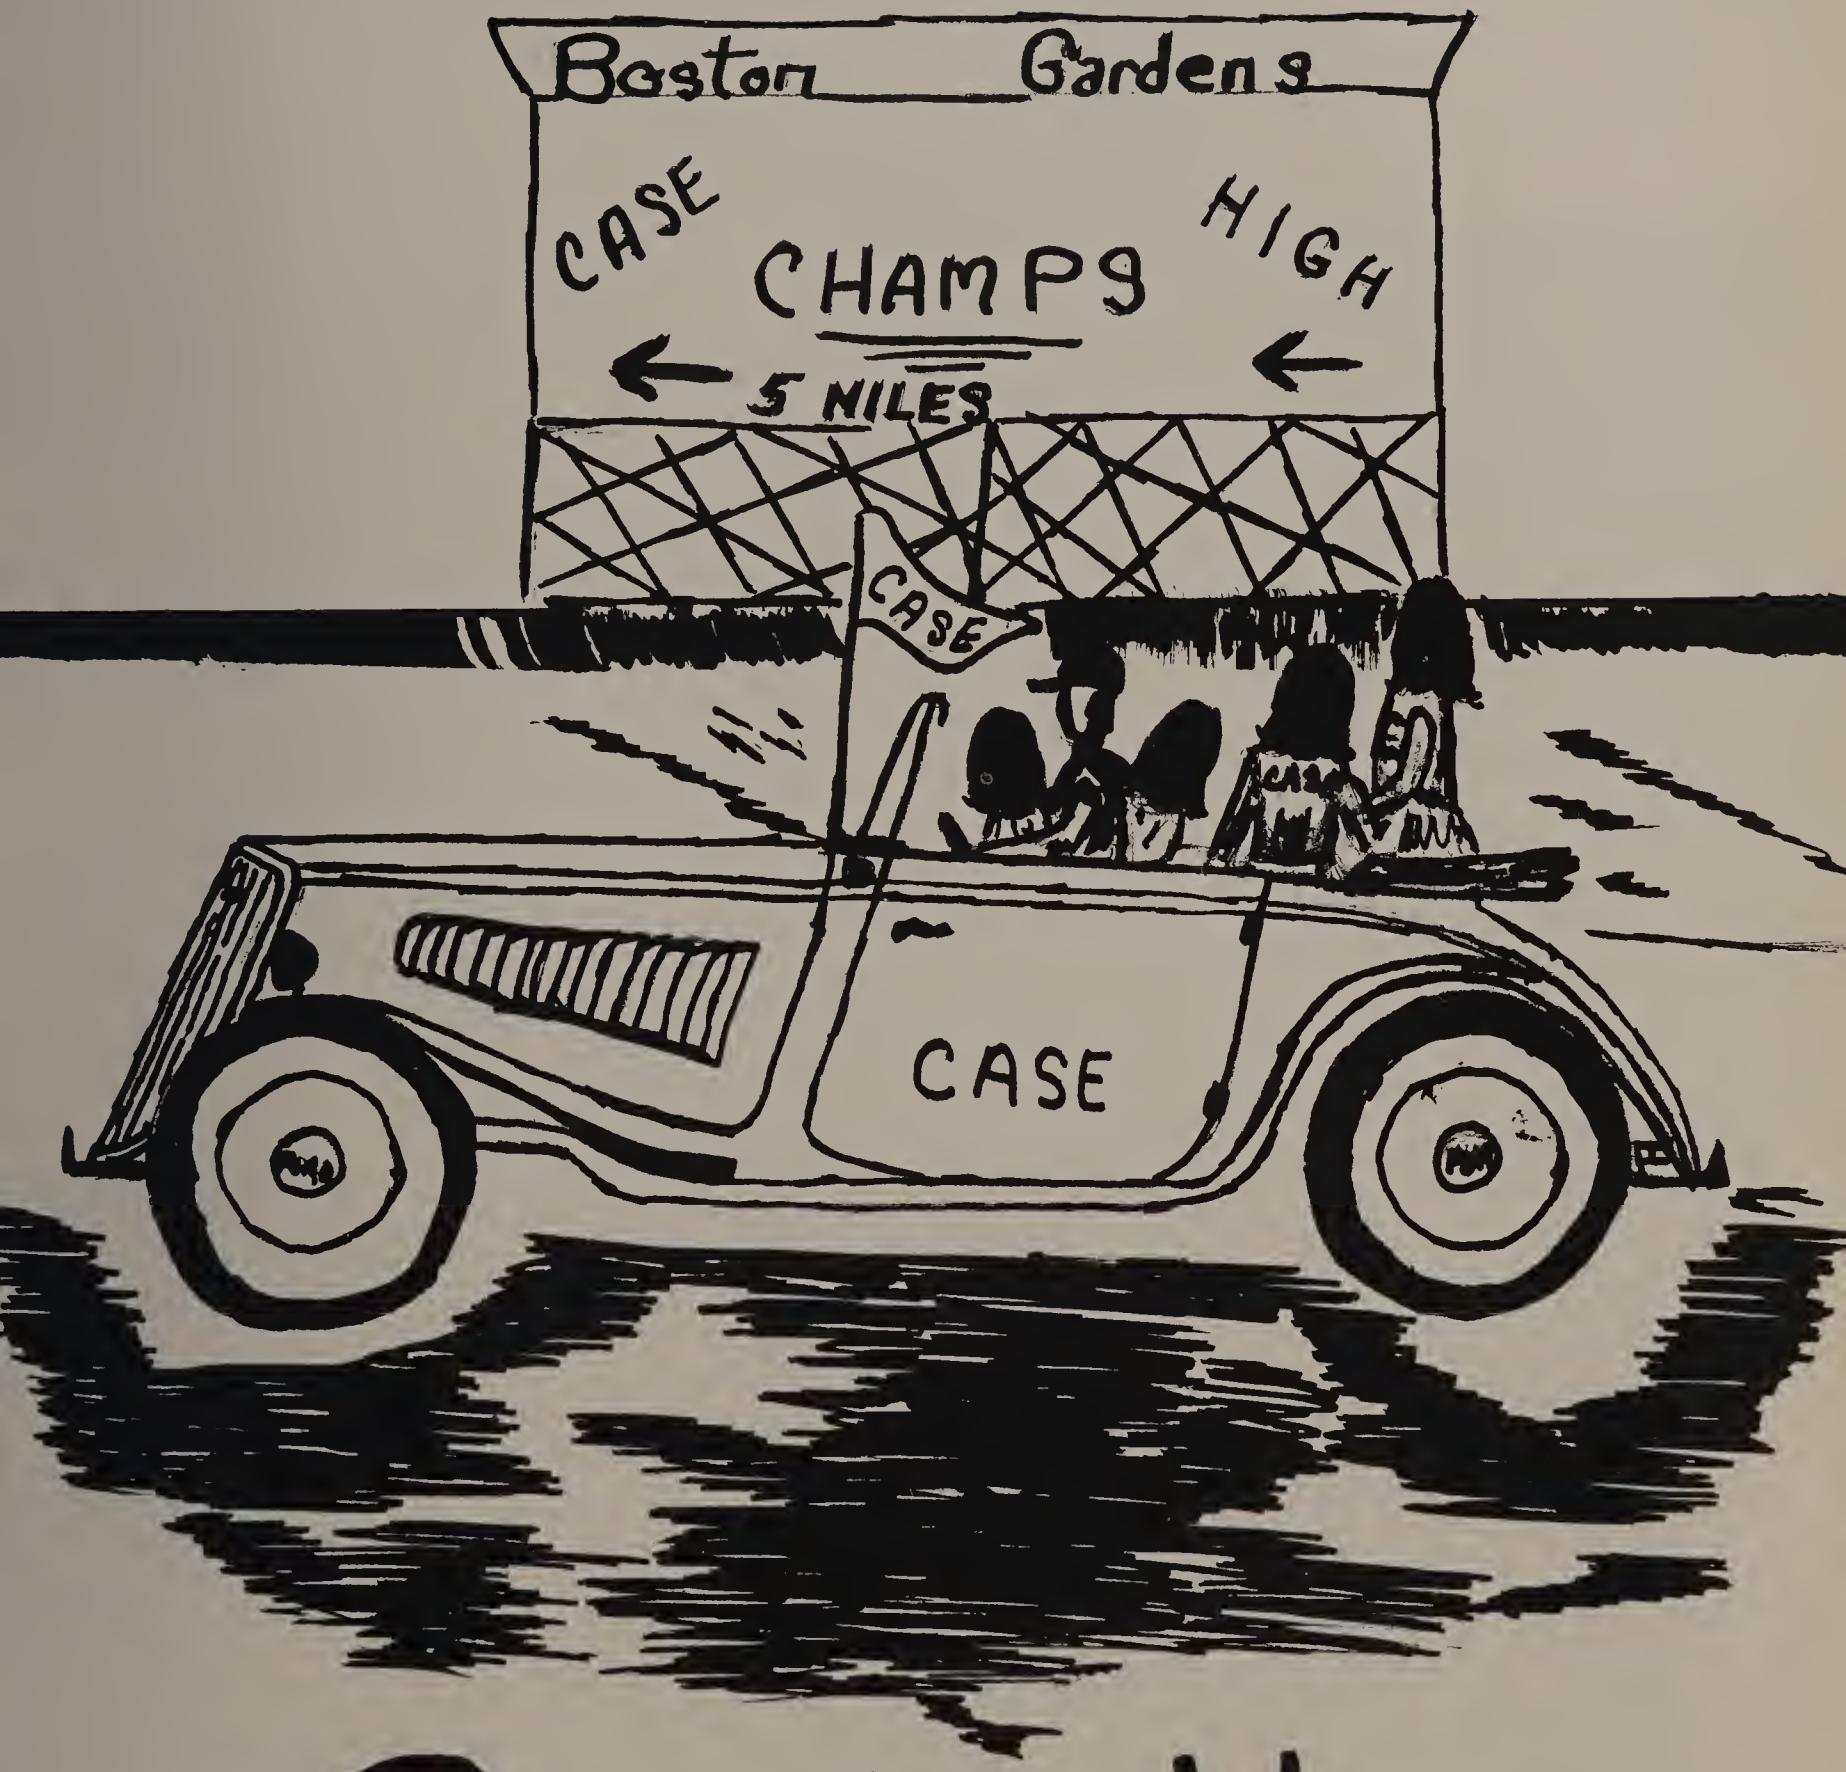

Harvard Book Award

PETER GENERAUX

Each year the Harvard Book is presented to an outstanding junior boy. This year, Peter Generaux has been selected by the faculty of Case High School to receive this award offered by the Harvard Club of Fall River. Peter's fine character and distinct leadership qualities make him very worthy of this honor.

The faculty and students of Case High School congratulate you on the achievement and wish you, Peter, happiness and success in the future.

Class History

In September, 1954, we entered the Joseph Case High School as timorous seventh graders. A whole new world surrounded and confused us, but gradually we became accustomed to the many new and exciting activities of Junior High.

September, 1956, saw our entrance into the realm of the high school. We were now Freshmen, with class officers of our own. Advised by Mr. Napolean Dufault, we were headed by President Dolores Comeau; Vice-President Elaine Donovan; Secretary Elaine Provazza; and Treasurer Penny Smith. The Latin Club contest was won by Edward Scullen and Bonnie Rosenthal, who reigned as King and Queen of the "Snow Ball." An enthusiastic candy sale contest was won by Pauline Morrisette and Myles Dewey, who were crowned "Mr. and Miss Freshman Class." The year was pleasantly ended with the Freshman Prom, "Moonlight and Roses," and Class Day.

In our sophomore year we made the transition to the high school building, where we were advised by Mrs. Alice Gallon. Class officers were President James Johnson; Vice-President Thomas Walker; Secretary Jo-Anne O'Brien; and Treasurer Elaine Donovan. The year was marked by the sale of Christmas cards and the emergence of many students into the high school sports scene.

Our junior year brought with it many happy moments and our long awaited class rings. Class officers were President Wolly Morin; Vice-President Gerry Palmisciano, Secretary Jo-Anne O'Brien; and Treasurer Melanie Pelletier. Our class advisor was Mr. Paul Monahan. The outstanding event which will long live in our memories was the Junior-Senior Prom, "Song of the Sea." Co-chairman Del Comeau and Joe Quinlan and their committee transformed the gymnasium into a wonderland of beauty and enchantment.

Climaxing our high school days has been our wonderful senior year. Capably advised by Miss Rita Sullivan, our senior class is headed by President Joseph Quinlan; Vice-President Gerry Palmisciano; Secretary Jerry Galego; and Treasurer Barry Cullen. Student Council officers are seniors Jim Johnson, President; Elaine Donovan, Vice-President; Carol Mosher, Secretary; and Sue Danielson, Treasurer. Highlights of the year have been our courageous sports teams and the Talent and Fashion shows. Events to come include Class Day, the Senior Banquet, the Prom, and that magical moment of Graduation, when we culminate our years of high school learning, ready to face the future with both joy and apprehension.
